ABOUT THE INSTITUTE

PCC offers worldwide Yeshiva & Seminary students accredited courses in Judaic Studies which can be utilized to obtain a Bachelor's degree.

“

Our goal is to allow our students to earn a fully accredited Bachelor's degree in just under one year without leaving their Yeshiva or Seminary. This degree can then be used either to secure a solid position in your field of interest, or continue your education at any higher learning institution to earn your Master's.

We have a talented team of advisors who will guide you through the entire process, from the moment you register to the moment you receive your Bachelor's degree. Through an arrangement with our education department, PCC offers courses which are accredited by the NCCRS (National College Credit Recommendation Service).

PCC's curriculum is especially designed to guide students toward a Bachelor's degree from Excelsior College, Thomas Edison, or Empire State College. All our courses are in the Judaic field (in addition to secular requirements) so you can utilize the knowledge in Torah you have already acquired from your Jewish education, as well as learn new material, to receive your degree.

COURSE BREAKDOWN

- You need a total of 120 credits to earn a Bachelor's degree. You can earn a maximum of 78 credits from Torah studies/courses of your choice.
- An additional 35 credits come through required secular courses of English, History, Mathematics and Science. Together with the 78 credits of Torah, this totals 113 credits - all received via PCC.
- Once you have earned the 113 credits through PCC, you then enroll into the college of your choice to earn your final 7 credits.
- These final courses are called the Cornerstone and the Capstone. (Each is an 8-week course costing approximately $1600 per course paid directly to that college).
- There is a 1 credit Information Literacy course as well which can be taken at the student's leisure.

ADMISSIONS

- The cost is $85 per credit.
- There will be no registration fee for students taking over 100 credits.
- For students taking less than 100 credits there is a $400 registration fee.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE?

If you move at a reasonable pace (approximately one test every week or two), the entire Bachelor's program will be completed in under a year.

WHAT CAN I DO WITH MY BACHELOR'S DEGREE ONCE I GRADUATE?

Upon graduation, you can use your undergraduate degree to go on and earn a Master's degree in many other universities, or you can go straight into business with it. In many professions - such as teaching - employers are required by Law to pay significantly higher salaries to employees who possess a Bachelor's degree.

Excelsior College

Excelsior College located in Albany, New York is part of the University of the State of New York. Founded in 1971 by the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York, the school was originally the Regents External Degree Program. In 2001, the school became a private college and changed its name to Excelsior College.

Thomas Edison State College

Thomas Edison State College is a public institution of higher education located in Trenton, New Jersey. One of New Jersey's twelve public universities and colleges, Thomas Edison State College offers degrees at the undergraduate and graduate level. The college was named in honor of Thomas Alva Edison, the inventor who gained encyclopedic knowledge of many areas through self-directed learning.

Empire State College

Empire State College is one of the thirteen arts and science colleges of the State University of New York and is a multi-site institution offering various degrees, including distance degrees worldwide through the Center for Distance Learning. Empire State College is one of the institutions that offers open admissions, is adult-serving and has a majority of online students.
